President, Christian Leadership Academy Yaoundé – CLAY

Angela Acha-Morfaw holds a degree in Communication Arts from the University of Cross River State, Uyo, Nigeria (1990) and a Postgraduate Diploma in Theology from the Full Gospel School of Theology, Abak, Nigeria (1993). She furthered her education with a Leadership Certificate from Haggai Institute in Maui, USA (2004) and a Certificate in Leadership and Communication from Wheaton College, Chicago, USA (2018).

Her career began in ministry when she was ordained as a Pastor at Abundant Life Faith Ministries Inc, Uyo, Nigeria in 1991. She served as Executive Pastor from 1990 to 1998, overseeing daily operations including personnel, finance, and facilities.

Angela is an alumna and former international faculty member of Haggai Institute, where she taught Effective Communication to multicultural communities in Maui and Singapore between 2005 and 2007. She also contributed to national anti-corruption efforts by serving on multiple government committees from 2001 to 2005. Currently, she is the country coordinator for the Global Leadership Network, based in Chicago, USA, working to ignite leadership transformation.

In 2009, Angela was consecrated as a Bishop by the International Community of Charismatic Churches in Atlanta, Georgia, USA. She is the founder and president of the Abundant Life Faith Center Int'l, serving as Bishop over the Peniel Cathedral. Her humanitarian contributions include providing school supplies, food, and clean water to her community. Additionally, she is a published author and musician, with numerous books and music albums to her credit.

Angela Acha-Morfaw is a passionate leader dedicated to service and communication, deeply committed to her faith and community.
